

Parent of two children at school, Chris Edwards has been a teacher at the school since 1997, firstly as Head of Science, then Assistant Head and now as Deputy Principal. He is responsible for overseeing the curriculum, the use of the Pupil Premium Grant and leads the Business Admin team. His role as an Associate Governor requires him to inform governors on current school issues and he sits on the Finance and Teaching & Learning committees.