

Kathy Ellison was elected Parent Governor, joining in January 2016, and already has 8 years' experience as a governor at Northleach C of E Primary School, so is up to date with the demands of Ofsted, risks facing schools and recent changes to the curriculum. Mother of 3 children at the school, she is a director of a market research consultancy, based in London but working mainly from home, and has plenty of business experience in collecting opinions, data analysis, and strategic decision making.