

As well as having had distinguished careers in the diplomatic service, education and county politics (including chairing the County Education Committee), Lady Dunrossil has devoted over 25 years to the governing body of The Cotswold School, including 23 years as Chair and more before that at Westwoods Grammar School. Even now with 15 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren she still finds time to sit on the Finance, Pay & Performance and Teaching & Learning committees.