

Starting as a Governor in September 2015, Revd Katrina Scott is also a local Vicar in the Church of England and Area Dean for the North Cotswolds. She has served on 4 other governing bodies and enjoys engaging with the diversity of school and community life. Katrina is married to a teacher and they have two young children.