

Daniel has two children at The Cotswold School.

He is a Senior Project Manager for Kier Construction with over 20 years' experience in the onsite management of large-scale construction projects. Recently, he has project-managed several new school and academy construction projects ranging from classroom extensions to entire new build schools both primary, secondary and SEND schools.

He was previously a governor at Bourton Primary Academy and chair of their Premises Committee.

Outside of work he is a big follower of rugby and coaches his son's rugby team at Stow on the Wold RFC.
